

Cumbrian Society of Organists Grand Quiz

ANSWERS

There are 13 sections, most with several questions.

Unless otherwise stated, give yourself one mark for each question.

As well as a test of knowledge and powers of deduction, hopefully this will also serve to introduce you to some discoveries....musical and factual!

Because the quiz and its various examples have to be readable by both Mac and Windows users, (and embedded audio examples do not transfer well on PDFs) some working between multiple windows may on occasions be necessary.

Enjoy!

1. Which Organ Stops?

Use the following picture clues to work out the names of various common organ stops

1.1

What is this chap's first name, (Larry Grayson) and what can you do when you see this sign? (Organ stop name has three syllables, is high-pitched and was a fashionable addition to organ rebuilds in the 60s and 70s in particular) Answer: Larigot ('Larry' + 'Go')

1.2

What would this type of gentlemen be commonly called?

Clearly, somebody who likes to save money on their train fare!

A common organ stop/orchestral instrument rhymes with this term. On Dutch organs, this stop is spelt exactly the same as this term! The organ stop also rhymes with the nickname of the class 28 diesel locomotive class, which ended their short lives in Cumbria. Answer: Oboe ('Hobo')
(The class 28s were known as Co-Bos on account of their uncommon wheel arrangement)

1.3

What do these signs try to make you aware of? The organ stop rhymes with this - (fractionally more difficult than the previous question).

Answer: Nazard

1.4

These sweets are known as — —

The first word was in a popular song, and musical 'Hello Dolly!'

The second word is the same as a very common organ stop. What is it?

ANSWER: Mixture

1.5

The first two letters and last letter of this organ stop are the same as this boy's name. Answer: Piccolo

2. Which is the odd one out?

2.1

Which organ is the odd one out? Clue: - it something to do with how far your arms might have to stretch at the console...

- (a). Doncaster Minster, (St George's)
- (b). Chapel of Christs' Hospital School, Sussex
- (c). Liverpool Anglican Cathedral
- (d). St Paul's Cathedral, London
- (e). Wakefield Cathedral
- (f). Westminster Abbey
- (g). Canterbury Cathedral

Canterbury has four manuals (at least though, it's one more than it used to have). All the others have five.

2.2

Which famous French organist is not French?

- (a). Marcel Dupré
- (b). Maurice Duruflé
- (c). César Franck
- (d). Olivier Messiaen
- (e). Camille Saint-Saëns
- (f). Charles-Marie Widor

César Franck was Belgian

2.3

All of these Cambridge University chapel choirs have very fine reputations and have made various recordings. However, one is different in a vital respect to the others. Which is it?

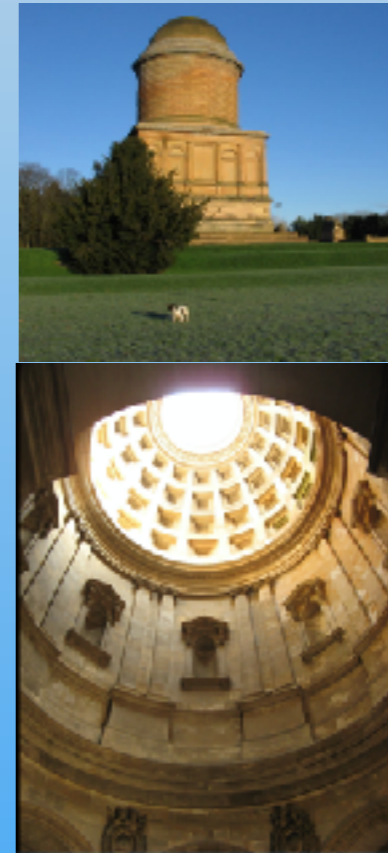

- (a). Clare College Choir
- (b). Girton College Choir
- (c). Gonville & Caius College Choir
- (d). Queens' College Choir
- (e). Selwyn College Choir
- (f). St John's College Choir
- (g). Trinity College Choir

St John's College choir is the only choir with boy trebles and a choir school. The other choirs are made up of mixed adults.

2.4

If a choir were to sing in any of these locations, the acoustics in one of these locations would be noticeably very different from the others.

- (a). Liverpool Anglican Cathedral
- (b). Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral
- (c). Gloucester Cathedral
- (d). St Paul's Cathedral, London
- (e). Lichfield Cathedral
- (f). Hamilton Mausoleum, Lanarkshire

Lichfield Cathedral has a dry acoustic for a cathedral. All the others are pretty reverberant, most of all Hamilton Mausoleum with a 14 second echo!! (pictured)

2.5

All of these organs share the same significant common feature, except one. Which is it?

- (a). Albert Hall, Nottingham
- (b). Hull City Hall
- (c). Queens' College, Cambridge
- (d). Rochdale Town Hall
- (e). St Aidan's Church, Leeds

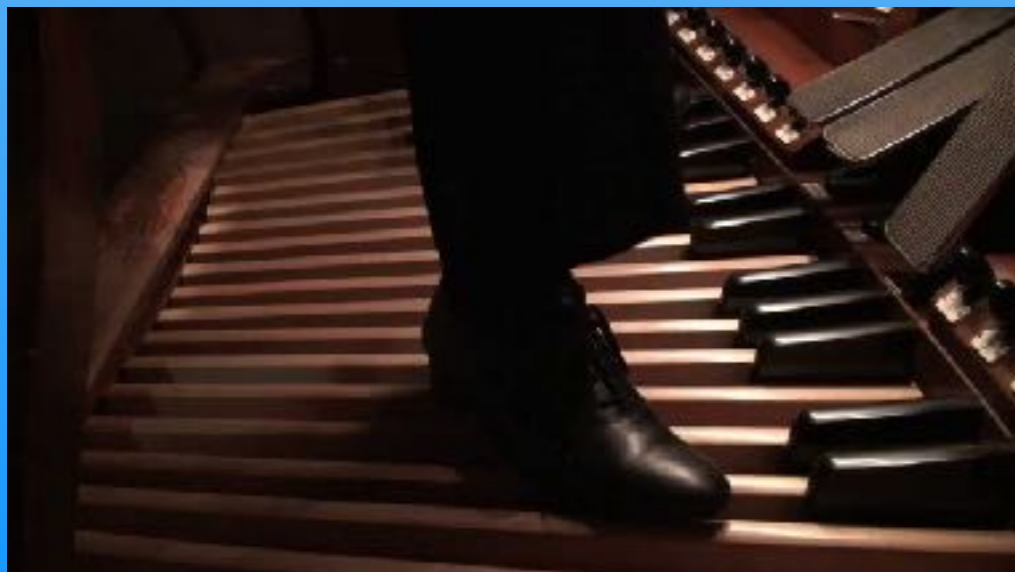

All the other organs are built by J.J. Binns. Hull City Hall organ is by Forster & Andrews/Compton

2.6

Which of these pieces is the odd one out? Clue: even an eight year old super prodigy would probably struggle to play the notes in all but one of these.

- (a). 'Variations on a theme of Paganini' by George Thalben-Ball
- (b). 'Perpetuum Mobile' by Wilhelm Middelschulte
- (c). Choral Song by S.S. Wesley
- (e). Toccata (middle section) from Toccata, Adagio and Fugue in C major, BWV 564, by J.S. Bach

Wesley's Choral Song was composed for manuals with pedals added later - all the others are primarily or exclusively for pedals.

2.7

All these organs share a significant common feature, except one. Which is the odd one out?

- (a). Chichester Cathedral (1972 instrument)
- (b). Inverness Cathedral
- (c). Portsmouth Cathedral
- (d). Sheffield Cathedral
- (e). Sheldonian Theatre, Oxford

All the other organs are various types of electronic instrument. The Chichester Cathedral Allen organ served as the main organ when the pipe instrument became unplayable, and until its restoration in the mid 1980s.

2.8

The consoles of all these organs are different in various respects, e.g. number of manuals, number of stops etc. However, one console is significantly different in another respect. Which is it and why?

- (a). St Andrew's, Penrith
- (b). Cartmel Priory (main organ)
- (c). Crosthwaite Church
- (d). Kendal Parish Church (both organs)
- (e). St Cuthbert's, Carlisle

St Andrew's, Penrith. The console is in an organ loft. All the others are more or less at ground level.

3.1 World Record!

Which of these statements are true (it could be more than one)?

The world record for the number of pints of beer that an organist has drunk, and shortly afterwards played a Bach trio sonata with all the right notes in the right order is:

- (a). 4 pints
- (b). 8 pints
- (c). 10 pints
- (d). Difficult to know - however, plenty of perfectly sober organists struggle to play a Bach Trio Sonata with all the right notes in the right order either!

(But if you know differently, award yourself a mark anyway!)

4. Which composer or tune?

4.1

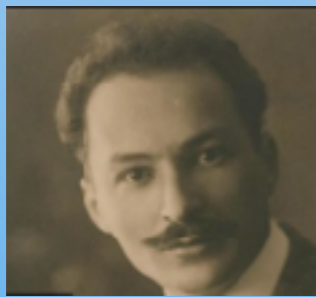

Which famous Yorkshire tune was the one that was originally set to 'While Shepherds watched'?

Answer: 'On Ilkla Moor Baht 'at', composed by Thomas Clark in around 1800. One of the few instances when a tune for a carol is subsequently used for a secular song – usually it's the other way round!

4.2

An organist composer whose surname is in the song 'The Bonnie Banks o' Loch Lomond'. He is known really only for one work, though did write many others. However, he is probably the best-known organ composers whose name begins with the same letter as his.

Answer: Pietro Yon (1886-1943), best known for his 'Toccatina for Flute'

VERSE 1

By yon bonnie banks and by yon bonnie braes,

Where the sun shines bright on Loch Lomond,

Where me and my true love were ever wont to gae

On the bonnie, bonnie banks of Loch Lomond.

4.3

A significant German early Baroque organist composer. His name sounds in English like a word that one would not want to be used as an evaluative term of one's playing or creative endeavours!

Answer:

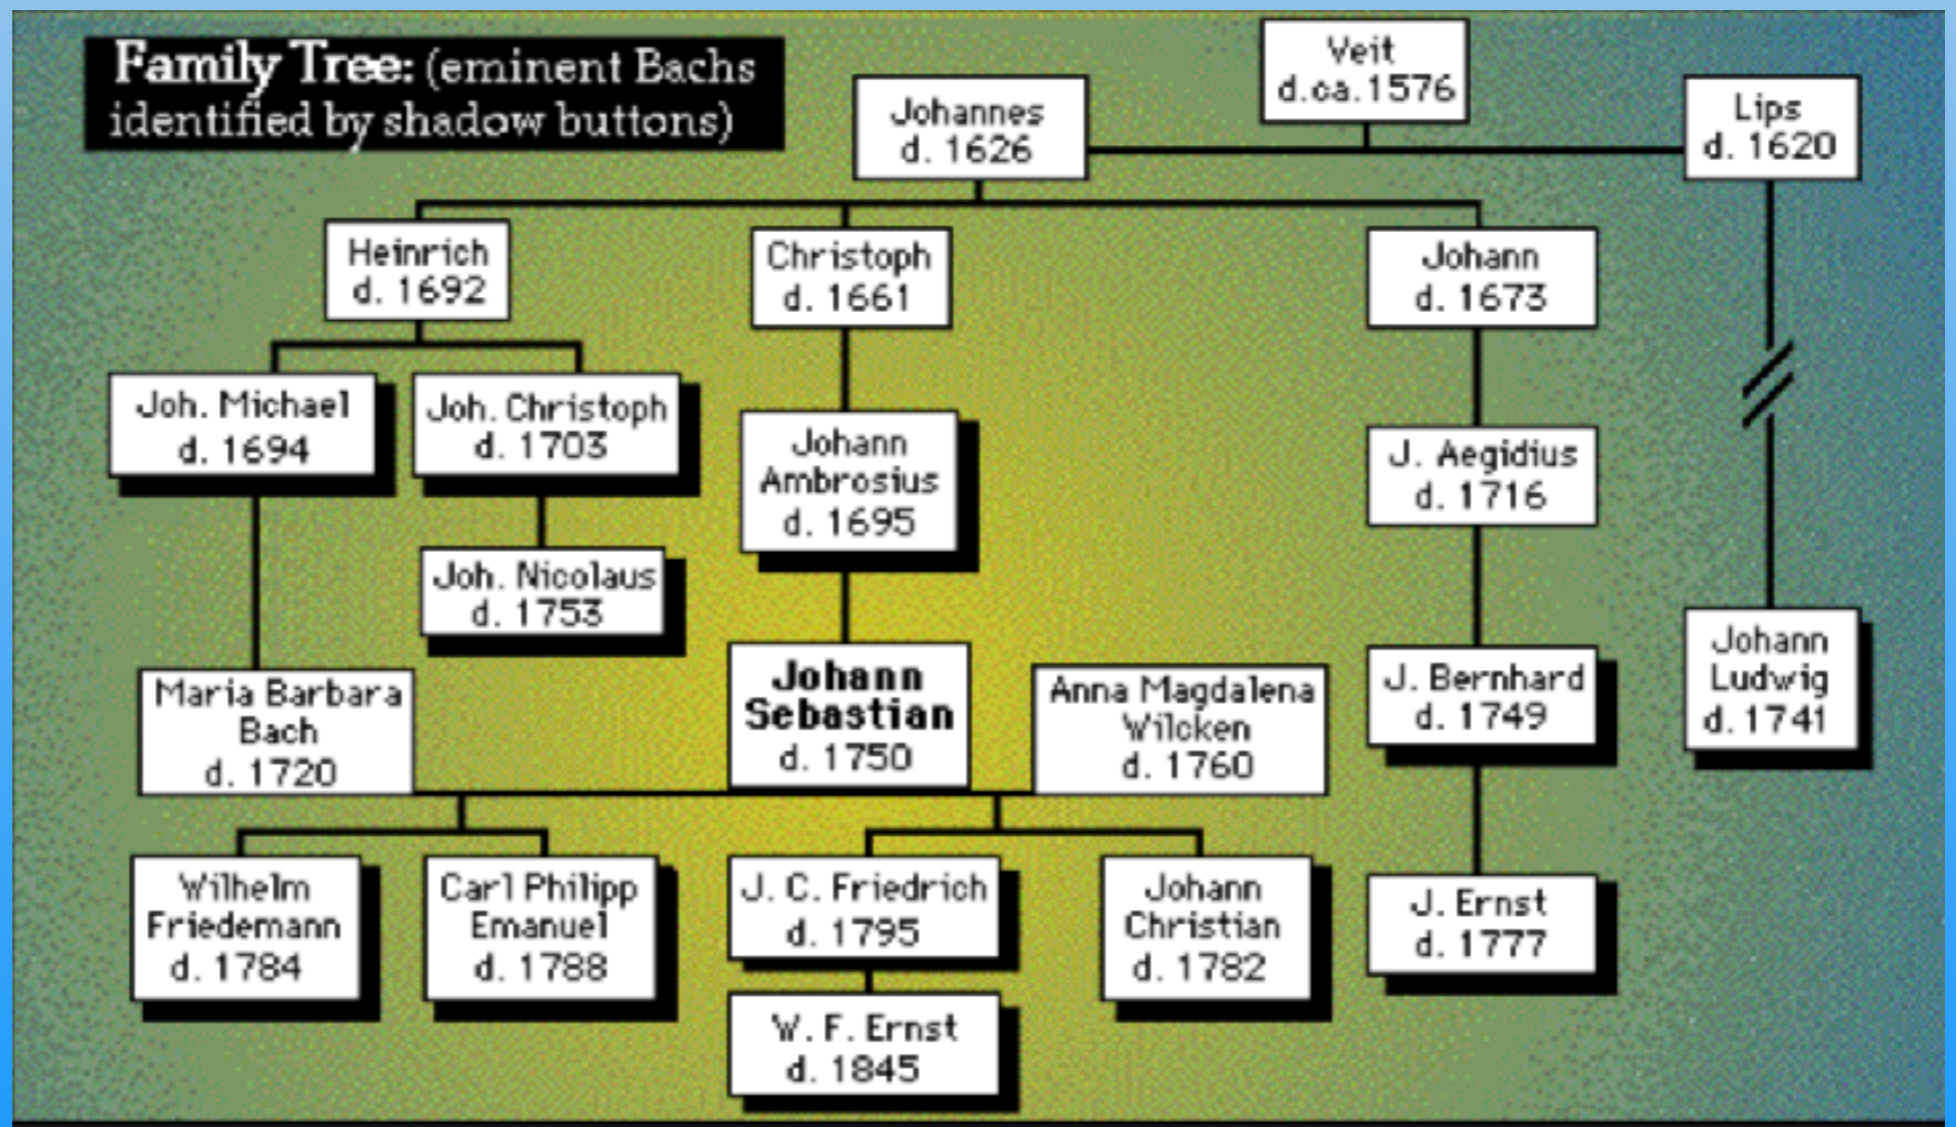

Samuel Scheidt (1587-1654)

4.4

Another German composer - or indeed a whole clan of them. The surname suggests the sound made by some four-legged members of households as a substitute for a doorbell or even a burglar alarm.

Answer: Bach (Bark)

4.5

A prolific Italian organ composer, whose surname might suggest somebody who liked to order people about. (His playing was never all at sea, but his unexpected death whilst returning from America to Italy was.)

Answer: Marco Enrico Bossi

4.6

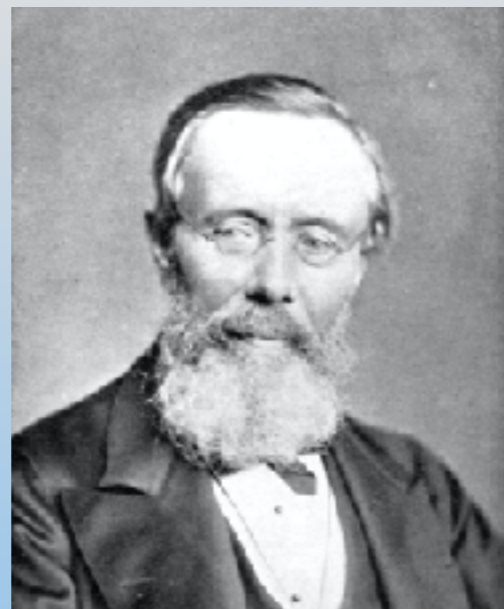

This Baroque composer's best known work by far is a famous Adagio for organ and strings.... However, he did not write it.

(i) Name this composer. Tomaso Albinoni

(ii) Name the twentieth-century musicologist and biographer of this composer who really did write it. Remo Giazotto

(one mark each)

4.7

A well-known gospel hymn:
'Who is on The Lord's side?'

(i) Who was the composer of the tune?

Answer: John Goss (1800-1880)

(ii) Which very senior church music position did he eventually hold?

Answer: Organist of St Paul's Cathedral

(iii) What is the name of the very famous hymn tune for which he is best known?
(The hymn tune and hymn have the same title)

Answer: 'Praise My Soul'

769 Who is on the Lord's side?
ARMAGEDDON · 65 65 D with refrain

Who is on the Lord's side? Who will serve the King? Who will be His help - ers oth - er lives to bring? Who will leave the world's side? Who will face the foe? Who is on the Lord's side? Who for Him will go? By Thy call of mer - cy, by Thy grace di - vine, we are on the Lord's side; Sav-iour, we are Thine.

4.8

This composer is arguably both the worst ever published composer of organ music....and the commercially most successful!

Who is he? (The following link will prove useful)

Answer: Caleb Simper

Which is the publishing firm of his organ works, all of which are currently available? Answer: Stainer & Bell

5. Spot the tune!

5.1

This excerpt from a prelude by Herbert Sumsion is based on a well-known hymn melody. It is played by Daniel Cook on the organ of Salisbury Cathedral. Click here for the audio track

(a). What is the name of the hymn tune or a hymn to which it is often set? Clue: the name of the tune relates in a way to a crocodile.

(One mark) Answer: Dundee. 'Crocodile Dundee' (The actual crocodile who starred in the film sadly died very recently, aged c.90)

(b). Which two of these statements are true? (One mark each)

- (i) The hymn melody appears in augmented form on its second appearance, (i.e. double the note lengths)
- (ii) The hymn melody always appears at the top of the texture.
- (iii) The hymn melody modulates into another key near the beginning.
- (iv) The hymn melody's phrases are interspersed with linking episodic material.

5.2

What is the very well-known tune on which this prelude is based?
Clue: Most people will hear it sung to them once a year...

Click here for the video audio track

Answer: 'Happy Birthday'

5.3

Click here for the audio track

In this prelude, a phrase heard on the solo reed spells out two words, each of three letters. The first letter is 'C'. The phrase is heard four times, though with one letter heard once at a different octave and the last phrase ending on 'C'.

The first word is something that you might take late at night to get you home safely. Answer: C-A-B

The second word is something that everybody starts to do as soon as they are born. Answer: A-G-E

(one mark for each word)

5.4

Click here for the audio track

This is an improvisation on a very well-known hit Christmas song from some decades ago. What is the name of the group who sang it? (Clue: the name of the group is the same as the establishment where Ronnie Barker spent some years).

Answer: 'Slade' (Ronnie Barker starred in the TV comedy 'Porridge' where he was interned in Slade Prison)

5.5

Click here for the video

- (a) What type of animal is this character? Answer: Reindeer
- (b) Which national charity event is named after this animal's most notable feature? Answer: 'Red nose day'

(Two marks)

5.6

Click here for the scores

Here are four mini preludes based mostly on hymn tunes. However, one is based on a very well-known Eurovision hit song from several decades ago. Name the hymn tunes and the song, (one mark each).

(a) (No audio track)

Answer: The hymn tune 'Bunessan'

(b) Audio track Clue:

Answer: 'Congratulations' sung by Sir Cliff Richard

(c) Audio track Clue:

Answer: The hymn tune 'York'

(d) Audio track Clue:

Answer: The hymn tune 'Gonfalon Royal'

5.7

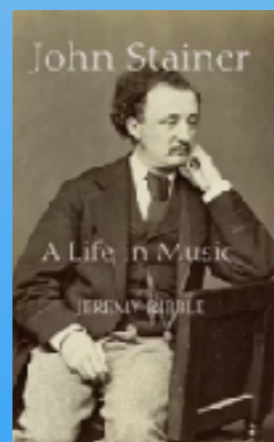

Here are two more mini preludes based on hymn tunes. Name the hymn tunes on which the preludes are based. (One mark each)

(a) Audio track Score Clue:

Answer: the hymn tune
'Southwell'

(b) Audio track Score Clue:

Answer: the hymn tune
'All for Jesus'

6. Which location?

6.1

For some years there was a Borders Cathedral Choirs Festival featuring the choirs of Carlisle, St Mary's Episcopal Cathedral Edinburgh and St Nicolas's Anglican Cathedral, Newcastle.

- (a). Which of these cathedrals is the furthest east? Newcastle
- (b). Which of these cathedrals is furthest west? Edinburgh (just!)
- (c). Which of these cathedrals is furthest north? Edinburgh
- (d). Which of these cathedrals is furthest south? Carlisle (just!)

6.2

Which is the most northerly located three-manual organ in the UK?

Answer: Willis III organ of St Magnus Cathedral, Kirkwall, Orkney Is.

6.3

(a). On a journey by train from London King's Cross to Edinburgh, name the cathedrals (Anglican and Roman Catholic) of the towns / cities that you pass through. (There are five - one mark for each correct answer)

Answers: Peterborough, York, Durham, Newcastle (R.C. and Anglican)

(b). Name a cathedral on a hill but on a different railway route that you just might be able to see in the very far distance. Answer: Lincoln Cathedral

(c). Name the town that you pass through with a very large parish church, and river - into which the 16th century composer Robert Parsons fell into and drowned.

Answer: Newark on Trent

(d). You might get a brief rattle as you pass through the above town.

Answer: There is a flat crossing as the Nottingham to Lincoln line crosses the main line.

(e). Name the town that you pass through with a very large parish church and river - and remnants of a Roman wall next to the church.

(not Berwick on Tweed); the town is sometimes known by the same name as one of The Osmonds. Answer: Doncaster ('Donny')

6.4

This organ is located near an old city with a cathedral and port, and in a town traditionally associated with drinking and gambling. What is the building where it is located?

Answer: Cheltenham College Chapel (Norman & Beard/Harrison organ)
It was also the location of the film 'If' (1968).

6.5

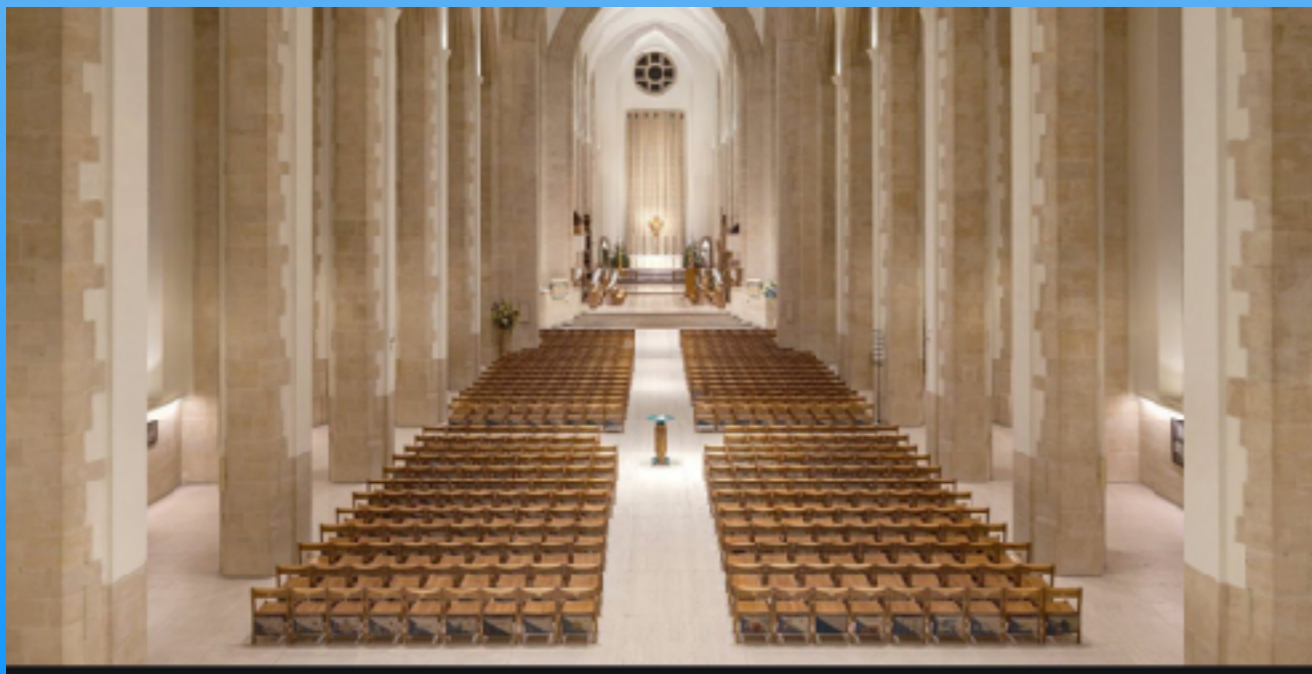

This organ was built in the 1960s, based on an instrument from a West Yorkshire chapel, and installed in what was then a new English cathedral. The building originally had very dry acoustics but since its recent restoration and the removal of acoustic tiles from the ceiling, it has now gained several seconds of reverberation.

(a). Which cathedral is this?

Answer: Guildford Cathedral

(b). Who was the first organist of this cathedral?

Answer: Barry Rose

6.6

Name a well-known Cumbrian organ by Harrison's where an equally well-known member of the CSO is organist. Big clue: describe the musical term for the opening pedal notes of this Bach prelude, (we've all practised these sort of things, albeit usually with fingers), transpose down a tone...and, hey presto! You have the name of the village!

Click here for the recording Answer: St Cuthbert's, Seascale

Prelude and Fugue in D Major
BWV 532 Johann Sebastian Bach

Praeludium.

Manuale.

Pedale.

7. Which Cathedral? - slide show

Name the buildings in the following slide show. Each one is marked by a letter, A-F, (not A-G as stated in error in the original question) and there are several slides of most.

(One mark for every building correctly identified)

Click for slide show

Answers:

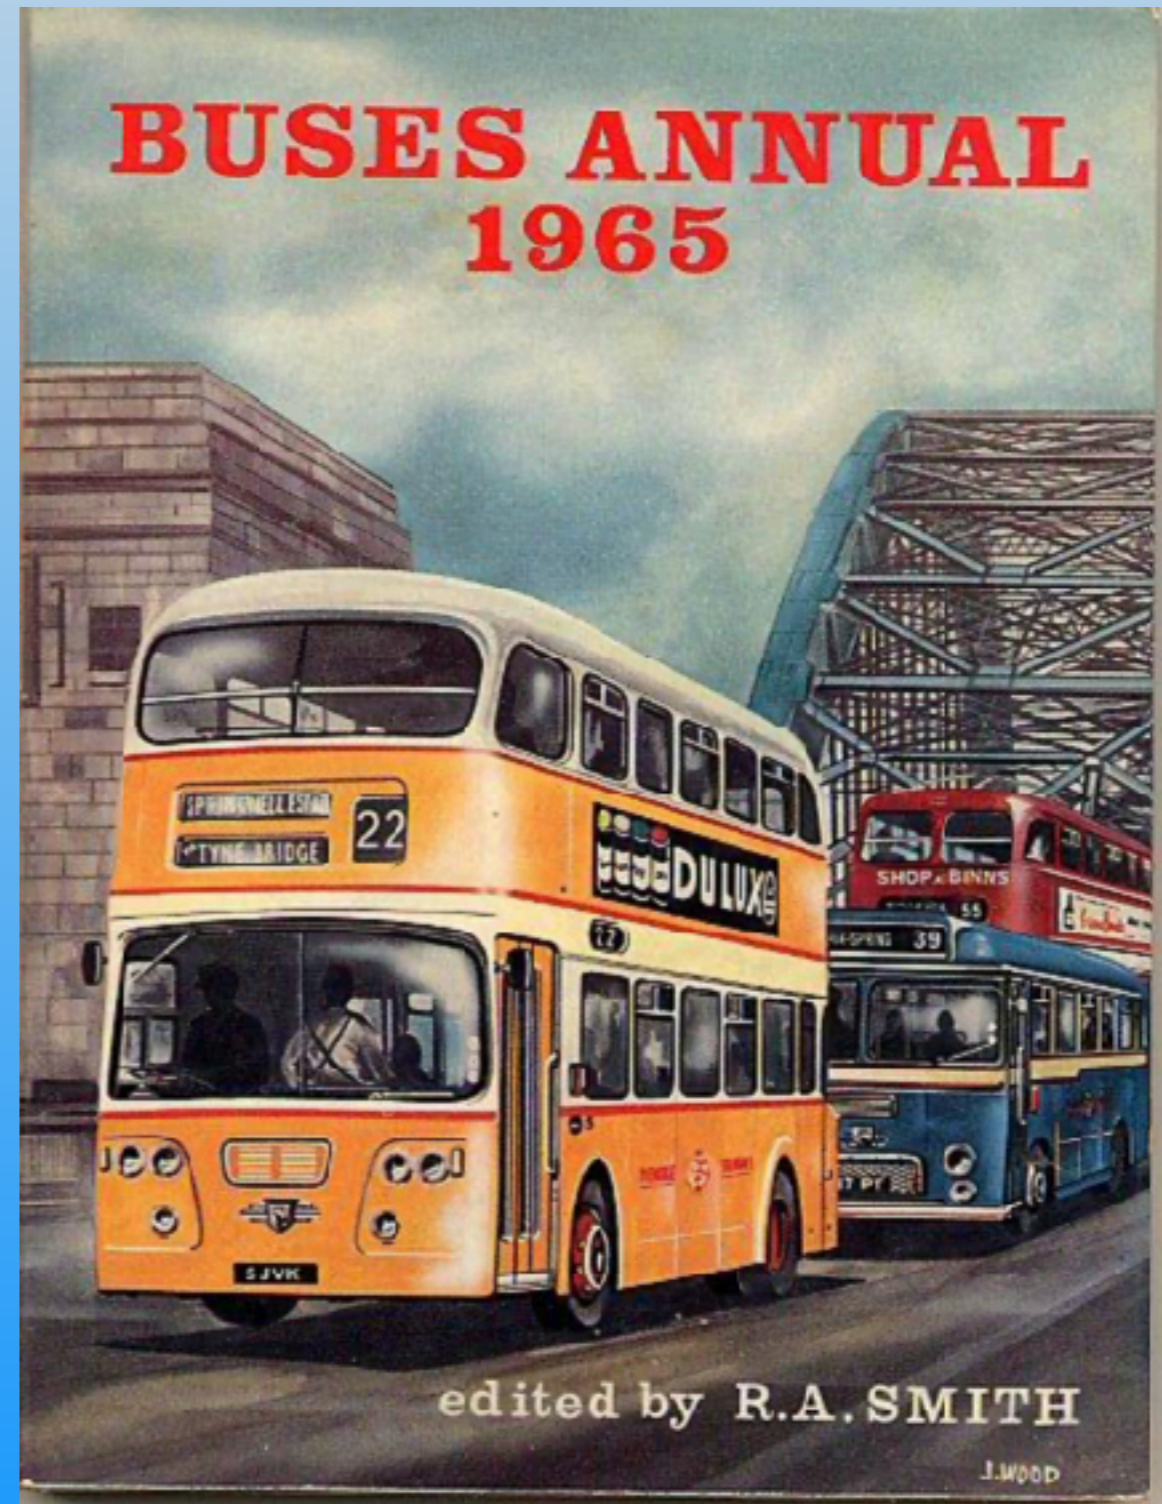

- A. St Philip's Anglican Cathedral, Birmingham
- B. Newcastle Anglican Cathedral
- C. Derby Cathedral - the statue is of Bonnie Prince Charlie
- D. Carlisle Cathedral
- E. Worcester Cathedral
- F. Exeter Cathedral

8. Which organ builder?

Work out the name of the well-known organ builders suggested by the following pictures or other clues.

Organ builder (8.1)

Answer: J.J. Binns

Organ builder (8.2)

A builder from the London area. Answer: Alfred Hunter
Rhymes with these two... Answer: Billy Bunter/Punter

One of their organs can be found at this Oxford college. (Hertford College)

Organ builder (8.3)

The pictures give a clue as to the surname of the firm.

The first name initials are also those of an organisation, whose members used to arrive at your door with their literature...

Answer: J.W. Walker

Organ builder (8.4)

Answer: Hill

Organ builder (8.5)

This organ, (not a cathedral instrument) was built in 1973 and one of only two in the UK by this builder. It was among the very first large classical instruments with tracker action built in the UK. The builder incidentally was also a gold medal winner in canoeing in the 1936 Berlin Olympic Games!

1. Name the builder Answer: Gregor Hradetsky
2. Name the location of this instrument Answer: Royal Northern College of Music, Manchester
3. Name the location of the second instrument Answer: St Salvator's Chapel, St Andrews

Organ builder (8.6)

Answer: Harrison (Harry's son)

Organ builder (8.7)

A famous contemporary continental builder, rhymes with....

+ land = a country whose largest and most famous organ was built by this firm.
(Iceland- Hallgrimskirkja, Reykjavik)

Answer: Klais

Organ builder (8.8)

Answer: William Holt, later Frederick Holt

A 19th century Bradford/Leeds-based organ builder.

An organ by this firm was relocated in recent years to a UK cathedral by the sea.

Cathedral of the Isles,
Millport, Isle of Cumbrae

9. Which Organ?

9.1

(a) Which organ is this? Answer: Rosales/Glatter-Götz organ of the Disney Concert Hall, Los Angeles.

(b) To what do you account its rather unusual appearance?

- (i). One of the organ tuners working inside the organ had suffered a bad sneezing fit.
- (ii). It's the aftermath of a riotous pop concert.
- (iii). The previous sacked organist had taken their revenge.
- (iv). The hall architect wanted to make a statement.
- (v). The organ builder reckoned that the pipes would sound better at these angles.
- (vi). The organ builders had gone bust and left the work unfinished.

9.2

(a) Of which very well-known Cumbrian church might it be said that the main organ (in its various manifestations) over the years has occupied as many positions in The Church as most bishops and other senior clergy? Answer: Kendal Parish Church

(b) This same church has an organ that started life in a Yorkshire industrial town and then installed in a cathedral prior to its current location. Who is the builder of this organ? Answer: Bevington & Sons, originally in Congregational Church, Greasbrough, installed here after use as a temporary organ in St. Asaph Cathedral

(One mark each)

9.3

Which single word is common in some way to all of these photos?

Answer: Wilkinson. (Pictures, clockwise: Wilkinson razor blades; Organ of St Mary's Metropolitan Cathedral, Edinburgh, which incorporates the Wilkinson organ from Preston Town Hall; Wilkinson's camera shop in Carlisle; Former Wilkinson factory in Kendal; Tom Wilkinson, Organist of St Mary's Metropolitan Cathedral, Edinburgh.

10. Trains again!

10.1

These locomotives / trains are mostly placed in chronological order according to when they were built (i.e. oldest first). However, one is out of order. Which is it? Answer: it was a naughty trick question; all are in the correct order

(a) 1935

(b) 1955

(c) 1959

(d) 1960

(e) c.1976

(f) 2008

10.2

In which year did this particular organist lose their music?

- (a) 1928
- (b) 1947
- (c) 1963
- (d) 1974

The next time that some organist's music flies out of the window...they can jolly well buy some more!!

11. Spot the composer and compositional technique

11.1

MUSIC EXAMPLE 'A'

Click here for audio track

Who is the composer of this work? Is it:

- (a). Vincenzo Petrali (1830-1889)
- (b). Louis James Alfred Lefébure-Wély (1817-1869)
- (c). Gioachino Rossini (1792-1868)
- (d). Oliphant Chuckerbutty (1884-1960)

11.2

Is the above work:

- (a). A transcription of an orchestral overture
- (b). A Verset for the Gloria of a Mass
- (c). A transcription of some music for a silent film

11.3

MUSIC EXAMPLE 'B'

Click here for audio track

Given the style in which this piece is written, who is most likely to be the composer? Is it:

- (a). Johann Ludwig Krebs - (Germany) - (1713-1780)
- (b). Max Reger - (Germany) - (1873-1916)
- (c). Marcel Dupré - (France) - (1886-1971)
- (d). Johann Nepomuk David - (Austria) - (1895-1977)

11.4

Is the above work:

- (a). A fugue
- b) A chorale prelude: 'Komm, heiliger Geist, Herr Gott' (1929)
- (c). A trio sonata

11.5

MUSIC EXAMPLE 'C'

Click here for the audio track

Here are some verses of the hymn 'Disposer Supreme'. From the sound of the organ (not least the feisty trumpet stop on the fanfare!) and the acoustics of the building, which is the most likely recording location?

- (a). Christchurch Cathedral, Oxford
- (b). Lichfield Cathedral
- (c). Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral
- (d). King's College, Cambridge
- (e). St John's College, Cambridge

11.6

(a) What is the name of the tune? (The name relates in a way to a very famous former organist at York Minster) Answer: 'Old 104th'
Francis Jackson, one time organist at York Minster lived to the age of 104

11.7 MUSIC EXAMPLE 'D' - Hymn tune Pentecost

Click here for the audio track

Which one of these statements is least likely to be true?

This is a demonstration of:-

- (a). A singer with a rather fast tremulant
- (b). A melody line of a wide compass range
- (c). A melody line of a fairly straitjacketed compass range (only a 4th)
- (d). A melody line enhanced by a multitude of harmonisations of the same notes, (as with Handel Parker's 'Deep Harmony').

Fight the Good Fight with All Thy Might 196

[(PENTECOST L. M.)]

JOHN S. B. MONSELL, 1863 WILLIAM BOYD, 1868

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'Fight the Good Fight with All Thy Might'. It features a treble and bass clef staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are printed below the notes.

1. Fight the good fight with all thy might! Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right;
2. Run the straight race thro' God's good grace, Lift up thine eyes, and seek his face;
3. Cast care a - side, up - on thy Guide Lean, and his mer - cy will pro - vide;
4. Faint not nor fear, his arms are near, He chang - eth not and thou art dear;

Lay hold on life, and it shall be Thy joy and crown e - ter - nal - ly.
Life with its way be - fore us lies, Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.
Lean, and the trusting soul shall prove Christ is its life, and Christ its love.
On - ly be - lieve, and thou shalt see That Christ is all in all to thee. A - MEN.

A little bit of hymn history....

Pentecost was written in 1864 by William Boyd (1847-1928). Sabine Baring-Gould, the writer of Onward Christian Soldiers, and by now a curate in the West Yorkshire parish of Horbury Bridge, asked him to compose a tune for the hymn, Come Holy Ghost, Our Souls Inspire, to be sung at a large meeting of Yorkshire colliers.

This is Boyd's account from the Musical Times of 1908:

'I walked, talked, slept and ate with the words, and at last evolved the tune which I naturally named Pentecost.

'One day, as I was walking along Regent Street I felt a slap on my back, and turning around saw my dear old friend Arthur Sullivan. My dear Billy, he said, I've seen a tune of yours which I must have. (He was then editing Church Hymns). All right, I said, send me a cheque and I agree. No copy of the book, much less a proof was sent to me, and when I saw the tune I was horrified to find that Sullivan had assigned it to Fight the good fight!

'We had a regular fisticuffs about it, but judging from the favour with which the tune has been received, I feel that Sullivan was right in so mating words and music.'

11.8

MYSTERY WORK in G

Giovanni Candotti (1809-1876)

Suonatina in G major - Allegretto

Click here for audio track

Which of these descriptions best describe this work? You will hear the main section repeated.

(a). The music comes from: (i) England (ii) Germany (iii) Italy

(b). The music is influenced by (but not necessarily contemporary with): (i) Late Renaissance and Baroque keyboard toccatas
(ii) Opera and popular song (iii) Church polyphony

(c). Which one of the following three features do we hear?

(i) A shift at the very start from G major to A minor chords

(ii) A shift at the very start from G major to the relative minor (Em)

(iii) Lots of major seventh chords

12.1

CHRISTMAS!

Which attributes of Santa Claus would organists most likely want too? (You can choose as many as you think to be true)

- (a) The white beard
- (b) The sack
- (c) Being able to fly over traffic jams
- (d) Being able to make everybody happy; give them what they like
- (e) Being able to perform in multiple locations at the same time
- (f) Being able to squeeze into tight spaces

(One mark)

And final Question!

13.1 'Musical interpretation'

We don't actually know which organ this is, but is it:

- (i) A demonstration of toe and heel technique?
- (ii) An organists' nightmare?
- (iii) An organists' dream come true?
- (iv) None of the above ...but it's a jolly interesting picture?

(Any honestly-held answer(s) will earn you your mark!)

